READ :—

Letter No. 619, dated 24th November 1894, from the Registrar to the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore.

I am directed to state that owing to the absence of definite rules on the subject of clothing issued to Jail establishments considerable inconvenience is experienced in sanctioning the Annual Indents for clothing, which is now supplied to Jail establishments at irregular intervals on Indents made by the Superintendents of the three Jails, the number of suits supplied to each individual and the kind of stuff being determined by the Superintendents without any rules to guide them or to ensure uniformity of practice.

2. I am, therefore, directed to forward for the approval and sanction of Government a set of Rules on the subject, framed on the lines of the Madras Rules, with slight modifications, suited to local requirements. In Madras, Jailors, Deputy Jailors and Assistant Jailors, are required to furnish themselves with their own suits ; but considering the small pay allowed to Jail officers in Mysore, and the practice heretofore existing of supplying them with the uniforms at Government expense, the Draft Rules provide for the continuance of the existing practice.

Letter No. 11892—J. 670, dated 30th January 1895, to the Registrar to the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore.

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of your letter No. 619, dated 24th November 1894, submitting for approval a set of Rules for the issue of clothing to the Jail establishments framed on the lines of the Madras Rules, and with reference to para 1, I am directed to solicit reference to General No. 3472—Finl. 218, dated 12th October 1871, from the Officiating Secretary to the Chief Commissioner to the Officiating Judicial Commissioner, and to enquire whether these rules have not been in force and in what way they have proved inconvenient.

2. I am to request further to be favored with a comparative statement showing the annual cost as at present incurred and as it will be for the same staff and number of prisoners, if the proposed new rules were adopted.

Letter No. 995, dated 17th April 1895, from the Registrar to the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore.

I have the honor, by desire of the Inspector General of Prisons, to acknowledge receipt of your No. 11892—J. 670, dated 30th ultimo, and to state that the Rules relating to clothing referred to in the letter of 12th October 1871, from the Officiating Secretary to the Chief Commissioner, have been in force in the Central Jail, and in supplying clothing to the other Jails also the same Rules have, as far as practicable, been observed.

The Draft Rules submitted with this office No. 619, dated 24th November 1894, though somewhat amplified, are framed on the same principles as those indicated in the Rules of 1871, but are made applicable generally to all Jails. In the proposed Rules the uniform for European and Eurasian Jail officers and that of Native Warders, &c., are separately described. Patrol Jackets are specially provided for. Under the existing rules the Jail officials have to supply their sandals and cumblies at their own expense. This will be continued and the Draft Rules now submitted have been altered accordingly.

There will be no extra cost involved by the supply of the uniform according to the proposed rules, as will be seen from the accompanying comparative statement, and, considering the arduous duties devolving on Jail officials in Mysore, and the concessions allowed to such officials in the Madras Presidency, the Inspector General trusts that the Government will be pleased to accord their sanction to the proposed rules.

No. 24723—J. 1477, DATED, BANGALORE, 21ST JUNE 1895.

ORDER THEREON.—The Government are pleased to approve of the following Rules proposed by the Inspector General of Prisons; and to direct their publication in the Mysore Gazette.

Rules relating to clothing for Jail Establishments.

The Jailor and all officers subordinate to the Superintendent shall, when on duty, always appear in the prescribed uniform, provided that, except on inspections and parades, white drill uniform may be worn without braid.

2. The uniform for European and Eurasian Jailors shall be as follows, viz :—

(a) Loose patrol jackets—With stand-up collar rounded in front, single breasted, edged all round (collar included) with ¾ inch black mohair lace, fine black silk olivet buttons in front, pointed cuffs, five inches deep, trimmed with mohair lace, and gold embroidered crown at the point, back seams hemmed with mohair, two pockets in skirt in front trimmed, side seams open eight inches from bottom.

(b) Loose cotton tunic —White drill with stand-up collar rounded in front, single-breasted, braided round the collar and down the front with four braided loops and olivet buttons across the breast, pockets at the side seams, pointed cuffs trimmed with braid.

Trousers—Plain blue cloth or white drill according to season.

Helmet—White Army Regulation with blue silk pagadi having a gold cord in upper and lower edge.

Forage cap—Dark blue with a broad cloth band, a gold cord on the upper and lower edge, and embroidered gold crown in front.

3. The uniform for Native Jailors shall be as follows, viz :—

(a) Loose cloth tunic—Dark blue with narrow stand-up collar, rounded in front, single-breasted, fastened with hooks and eyes, with black mohair lace half-inch wide round the top and bottom of the collar and down the front on each side, pointed cuffs, five inches deep, trimmed with black mohair lace, and a silver embroidered crown at the point. No pockets outside.

(b) Loose cotton tunic—White drill without collar, fine braided loops and olivet buttons across the breast, pockets trimmed with braid in front, pointed cuffs trimmed with braid.

Turband.—Blue pagadi with gold lace.

4. When on parade with the Warders outside the Jail, Jailors shall wear a sword with black leather sword-belt under the patrol jacket.

5. Deputy and Assistant Jailors shall wear similar uniform to Jailors, but without the gold embroidered crowns.

6. The uniform for European or Eurasian Chief Warders shall be tunic, and trousers of blue mixed cotton drill; forage cap with crown and device "Chief Warder;" white helmet with blue merino pagadi; gold crown on collar, leather waist belt over the tunic (to be worn always) with short sword (to be worn on parade.)

7. The uniform for Native Chief Warders shall be tunic and trousers of blue mixed cotton drill, the tunic to have an upright collar one inch in depth; a blue cap with pagadi with an edging of broad gold lace and a gold fringe at one end. A leather waist belt (to be worn always) and short sword (to be worn on parade.)

8. Deputy and Assistant Chief Warders shall wear a similar uniform with the following modifications, viz :—

Deputy Chief Warders shall wear the gold crown at the points of the sleeve. Assistant Chief Warders shall wear a yellow silk fringe to pagadi and three chevrons in gold braid on right arm with gold crown above.

9. Chief warders shall wear boots or sandals when on duty.

10. Head Warders of all grades shall wear a blue pagadi with gold lace and yellow cotton fringe. The tassel or shamla shall invariably be worn on the left side of the pagadi. Head Warders shall bear a crown just above the yellow fringe. The tunic and trousers shall be of blue mixed cotton drill. The tunic to have an upright collar, one inch in depth, and chevrons on the right sleeve according to grade. Three chevrons in gold shall be worn on the right arm by the first grade Head Warder, two by the second grade Head Warder, and one by the third grade Head Warder. They shall wear a leather belt. A warm cloth coat will be provided for night duty in jails where it is found to be necessary. Head Warders shall wear boots or sandals when on duty.

11. Warders of all classes shall wear a blue pagadi with yellow cotton fringe, a tunic and trousers of blue mixed cotton drill, and a leather belt with brass badge. The tassel or shamla of the pagadi shall be worn on the left side, and shall bear the Warder's number in place of a crown, just above the fringe. One chevron of blue cloth shall be worn on right sleeve by Warders of the first class, and one chevron of blue cloth at point of left sleeve by Warders, second class. A warm cloth coat will be provided for sentries on night duty in Jails where it is found to be necessary. Warders shall wear sandals whilst on duty.

12. Jailors, Deputy, and Assistant Jailors shall be provided at Government expense with loose cotton tunics and trousers above prescribed once in two years on indents submitted to and passed by the Inspector General of Prisons. The swords and belts will be supplied once for ever, and the loose Patrol Jackets, Helmets, Forage Caps, Turbans and loose cloth tunic once in five years, also at Government expense.

13. Chief Warders, Head Warders and Warders will be provided at Government expense with one suit every year or once in eighteen months (cotton and woollen alternately), one pagadi once in two years, one set of chevrons once in three years, leather waist belts and one set of metal buttons (of five) once in five years ; short swords will be supplied once for ever. Uniform will be obtained on indents submitted to and passed by the Inspector General.

14. Cloaks shall be issued in the monsoon to those working out-door, and the cost recovered from the several departments to whom convict labor is supplied.

15. In addition to the above allowance of clothing supplied at Government expense, Chief Warders, Head Warders and Warders will be required, if the Superintendent considers it necessary, to supply themselves with extra suits of uniform clothing at their own cost. Warders shall be required to supply themselves with angrekas at their own expense, and always to wear them under their uniform.

16. The arms to be carried shall be as follows :—Chief Warders and Head Warders shall carry short swords on extra-mural duties and parades. On intra-mural duties all officers of the Warder establishment shall carry batons 22 inches long and weighing from 1 lb. to 1¼ lbs. Breach-loading smooth bore carbines, with bayonets, shall be provided for the Warder Guard. Carbines to be carried when on extra-mural duties and parades only, and every man to carry ten rounds of ball (or buck-shot) cartridges, provided that when a single Warder is in charge of a gang, even extra-murally, he shall not carry carbine but a baton.

17. All Head Warders and Warders shall carry a brass whistle with chain.
